- (c) At least 21 days' notice will be given to members for an AGM specifying the day, time and location of the meeting.
- (d) Nominations for officers of the Committee will be sent to the Secretary at least seven days prior to the AGM.
- (e) All members have the right to vote at the AGM, and can submit a vote by doodle poll or proxy if they cannot attend the meeting. No member will be entitled to vote twice.
- (f) The quorum for AGMs will be a majority of voting members, including those who have voted by doodle poll or proxy as described in Section 8(e).
- (g) The Chair of The Club shall hold a deliberative as well as a casting vote at General and Committee meetings.
- (h) An Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) shall be called by an application in writing to the Secretary supported by at least 25% of the members of The Club. The Committee shall also have the power to call an EGM by decision of a simple majority of the Committee members.
- (i) At least 21 days' notice will be given to members for an EGM specifying the day, time and location of the meeting.
- (j) All procedures shall follow those outlined above for AGMs.

9 Amendments to the Constitution

The constitution will only be changed through agreement by majority vote at an AGM or EGM. The proposed changes to the Constitution shall be sent to the Club Secretary, who will circulate no less than 7 days prior to the meeting.

10 Discipline and appeals

- (a) All complaints regarding the behaviour of members should be presented and submitted in writing to the Welfare Officer.
- (b) The Committee will meet to hear complaints within ten days of a complaint being lodged. The Committee has the power to take appropriate disciplinary action including the termination of membership.
- (c) The outcome of a disciplinary hearing should be notified in writing to the person who lodged the complaint and the member against whom the complaint was made within five days of the hearing.
- (d) There will be the right of appeal to the Committee following disciplinary action being announced. The Committee should consider the appeal within ten days of the Welfare Officer receiving the appeal.

11 Dissolution

- (a) A resolution to dissolve The Club can only be passed at an AGM or EGM through a majority vote of the membership, provided a quorum is achieved. If a majority vote is reached, a further EGM will be convened no less than 4 weeks later (with no less than 14 days' notice specifying the day, time and location of the meeting) to further consider the matter. The Members may vote to wind up the club if 75% of those eligible to vote support the proposal (including those present at the EGM, and those who have voted by doodle poll or proxy).
- (b) In the event of dissolution, all debts should be cleared with any Club funds. Any property remaining after the discharge of the debts and liabilities of the Club shall be paid to or distributed for charitable purposes to Boundary Park.
